

NEW MEXICO CATTLE GROWERS' ASSOCIATION

COMMITTEE INTEREST PACKET

COMMITTEE FUNCTIONS

New Mexico Cattle Growers' Association committees are responsible for identifying, studying, and prioritizing issues and opportunities that will affect members, their communities, and the industry as a whole. They take part in the development of policy positions that guide legislative, regulatory, research, education, and other actions and activities of the Association.

COMMITTEE OVERALL RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Be aware of new developments, trends, emerging challenges, legislation, regulations and/or legal issues in the committee's area of responsibility.
2. Inform the committee members and members of the association of all sides of the issues
3. Provide an opportunity for open discussion among the committee members in the creation of policy resolutions or other committee recommendations to the Board of Directors and membership.
4. Formulate policy resolutions that are passed on to the Resolutions Committee for further consideration.
5. Once policy is adopted, assist the leadership and staff in implementing and/or accomplishing the policy.
6. Assist the leadership and staff in communicating accomplishments to the membership and industry.

To participate in a committee, please reach out to Association staff or committee chair/vice chairs.
